

2024 Pain Care Skills Training

Title: Medical Hypnosis

Presented by: Dr. Harold Wain

Offered: 20Aug 2024 0730-1130 & 1230-1630 PM Full Day

Course Description:

The art and science of hypnosis and its biopsychosocial model along with its use in medicine, surgery, and behavioral health will be explored. Screening techniques to ascertain hypnotic capacity and the development of strategies with patients will be described. Videos and demonstrations to highlight its effectiveness in patient care will also be presented to highlight its usefulness in patient care.

Objectives:

1. Participants will be able to recognize the use of hypnotic intervention as a biopsychosocial instrument and its effectiveness in medicine
2. Participants will be able to recognize the use of hypnotic techniques for intervention in surgery and pain
3. Participants will be able to understand the myths and misconceptions of hypnosis and its use as a clinical tool
4. Participants will learn some screening techniques to ascertain patient's level of hypnotizability
5. Participants will learn about hypnotic induction techniques

20 AUG 2024 AM & PM 0730-1130 & 1230-1630

0730-0830 - Hypnosis as a Clinical tool.

0800-0900 -Evaluation-Understanding of the Patient and Developing Hypnotic Strategies-

0900-0930 Screening and Hypnotic Inductions

0930-0945 ----Break---

0945-1130 Hypnosis with Medical Patients (Dermatology, Allergy, GI, ER, Pediatrics

1130-1230 ----Lunch----

1230- 1315 -Hypnosis with Medical Oncology Patients

1315 -1345- Hypnosis in Surgery

1345-1430 Pain and Hypnosis

1430 -1445 ---- Break ----

1445-1530 Hypnosis With Functional Neurology and Behavioral Health Patients

1530-1630 Case Consultation